Generali Global Corporate & Commercial appoints Lucia Sun as new Head of Claims GC&C Asia

Hong Kong – Generali Global Corporate & Commercial (GC&C) announces the strengthening of its Claims capabilities with the appointment of Lucia Sun as Head of Claims GC&C Asia, effective from 25th November. Based in Hong Kong, Lucia will be responsible leading the GC&C's claims team across Asia, directly reporting to Axel Roesner, Head of GC&C Asia.

Lucia brings with her over a decade of experience in the insurance sector, specialized in managing large and complex claims, particularly in Financial Lines and Casualty with claims exposures in Asia as well as the US. Prior to joining insurance, Lucia practised insurance litigation and disputes resolution in various multinational law firms as practising Solicitor in Hong Kong.

Commenting on the appointment, Axel Roesner, Head of GC&C Asia said, "I am pleased to announce that Lucia Sun joins us as Head of Claims GC&C Asia with effect from 25th November 2019. We are delighted to have Lucia on board and I am confident that her extensive experience in the industry will strongly contribute to the execution of our strategy in the region and to adding value beyond the policy. We are committed to being our customers' life-time partner, offering them a seamless experience through a value-added service and expertise."

On her appointment, Lucia commented "I am excited to join the GC&C Asia team putting my experience at the disposal of the Company to support and further reinforce the claims expertise across the region".

Lucia graduated with a Bachelor of Laws degree from The University of Hong Kong and a Master degree of Laws from the University College London, UK.
